

NKO Gives Sailors Single Point Access to the Future

Developing Sailors professionally and personally is now as easy as "point, click, and learn," thanks to Navy Knowledge Online (NKO). One of the many successful products of the Navy's Revolution in Training, Sailors now have the ability to instantly access and manage their careers through NKO, the Navy's knowledge management portal.

NKO is a key component of the Naval Education and Training Command's integrated delivery system for lifelong learning initiatives, personal development and knowledge management. A dynamic, broad based delivery system, NKO is designed to support the growth and development of all Sailors.

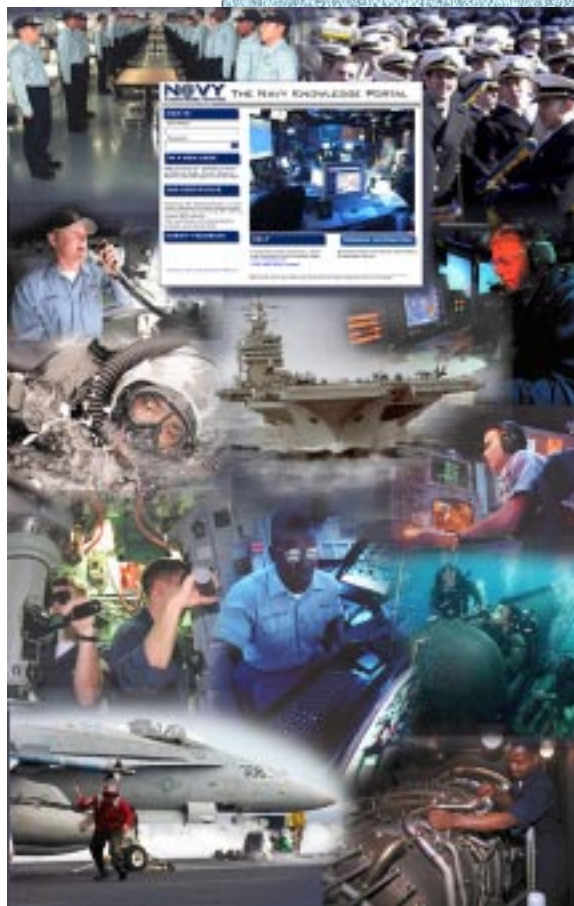

The NKO Web site will give Sailors instant access, throughout their entire careers, to the information, expertise and opportunities required to support their professional and personal development.

NKO users can access education and training opportunities in their respective occupational fields, and engage in real time collaboration with peers, mentors and subject matter experts around the world, no matter where they are stationed or deployed.

User friendly, NKO has vital links to each Sailor's professional continuum, personal development programs, specific learning centers, and various Navy eLearning initiatives available through the Internet, Sailors will be able to maximize centralized resources.
